

INVITATION

SOCIAL MEDIA TRAINING

23 April 2018, 10am – 1pm

Dr. Cheryl Lawther and Professor Kieran McEvoy of the 'Victims and Dealing with the Past' project team at Queen's University Belfast would like to invite you to attend a half day training event on the effective use of social media. This event is being run in collaboration with the Commission for Victims and Survivors Northern Ireland and the training will be delivered by Angelina Fusco, Channel56 media training.

The training event is open to all victims and survivors of the conflict in and about Northern Ireland and is free of charge. Key topics to be covered include creating and maintaining an online profile, social media and your audience, your 'message' and your impact and thinking local but acting global.

Please RSVP to c.lawther@qub.ac.uk by Wednesday 18 April to reserve your place. Training will take place in the Moot Court, School of Law, Queen's University Belfast. Tea and coffee will be available on arrival.

<https://victimsandthepast.org/>

CHANNEL 56

The logo for Channel 56 features the word 'CHANNEL' in a bold, grey, sans-serif font. To the right of 'CHANNEL' is a red circle containing the number '56' in white.